

Spring into Sustainability Symposium:

Navigating the Currents of Well-being: Sustainability, Health, Water, and the Urgency of Climate Change

Monday, March 26 – Thursday, March 29
Miami Dade College (MDC) North Campus
Room 2151 (unless otherwise specified)

Monday, March 26

9:00 – 10:00 AM: Multi-class presentation with Jean Sarmiento and Houston Cypress from Love the Everglades

10:00 – 11:00 AM: Multi-class presentation with Salome Garcia from Oceana

Tuesday, March 27

9:50 – 11:00 AM: Panel Discussion featuring Lian Plass, Sustainability Coordinator for the City of North Miami; Zelalem Adefris, Climate Resilience Program Manager at Catalyst Miami; and Dale Andree, Artistic Director of National Water Dance

11:05 AM – 12:00 PM: Multi-class presentation with Rachel Silverstein, Executive Director and Waterkeeper from Miami Waterkeeper

Wednesday, March 28

11:00 AM – 1:00 PM: Sustainapalooza! Student-lead festival to heighten awareness regarding sustainability and resiliency at North Campus located near Building 4

Thursday, March 29

1:40 – 3:00 PM: Our City, Our Future Debate: Is our current health care model sufficient for sustaining human well-being? Debate between Minority Association of Pre-Medical/Pre-Health Students (MAPS) vs. National Alliance of Mental Illness (NAMI).

5:40 – 7:30 PM: Film Screening with Oceana and local activist/film maker Jimmy Evans located in Room 2147