

Urban Resiliency Symposium: Protecting Pachamama

Wed. March 23 and Thurs. March 24

Miami Dade College (MDC) Wolfson Campus, Room 7128

Wednesday, March 23rd

8 am – 12 Noon

8:00 – 8:50

Living with Water

Katie Hagemann, Miami-Dade County Office of Resiliency

9:00 – 9:50

Balancing Freshwater Needs for Humans and Nature

Elizabeth Anderson, Florida International University

10:00 – 10:50

Educating and Engaging on Water Pollution Issues in the Everglades

Jennifer Diaz, Everglades Foundation

11:00 – 11:50

The Amazon Basin: A Scientific and Cultural Perspective on Global Climate Issues

Carmen Chavez, Amazon Center for Environmental Education and Research (ACEER)

Afternoon Film Screening

1:25 – 2:55

This Changes Everything - A film by Avi Lewis, Narrated by Naomi Klein

Thursday, March 24th

8:25 am – 12:30 pm

8:25 – 9:40

Panel Discussion:

Engaging Audiences in Nature and Sustainability Issues through the Arts

Dale Andree (Dance), Kim Rizio (Visual Arts), Karen Gonzalez (Music)

9:50 – 11:05

Biomimicry: Learning from Nature's Design

Jamie Anderson, Fairchild Tropical Botanical Garden

11:15 – 12:30

Sustainable Agriculture: A Local Perspective and an International Perspective

Gretchen Schmidt, Edible South Florida

Todd Walton, USAID, Miami Culinary Institute (MCI)

Urban Resiliency Symposium Art Exhibit - Wednesday and Thursday, Building 7 Reception Area

9:00 – 3:00

Art in Action

Curated by Professor Claudia Scalise